

Join Us

Our Ways Strong Together is the national Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peak Body for Family, Domestic and Sexual Violence. We are a collective voice for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community-controlled organisations delivering family, domestic and sexual violence response, prevention or early intervention services and activities. As a Peak Body, we work alongside communities, ACCOs, jurisdictions and governments to elevate priorities, share knowledge and advocate for change.

Why join

By joining, you will:

- Contribute to a collective national voice led by Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community-controlled organisations
- Strengthen advocacy for culturally safe, community-controlled responses to FDSV
- Connect with peers, share knowledge and support sector collaboration
- Help shape priorities, policy and reform that affect our communities
- Support a future where Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander leadership is recognised and resourced.

Together, we can make a difference

When our voices are heard and our leadership is supported, real and lasting change is possible.

Join us to strengthen our sector and support safer families, stronger communities and future generations.

and Sexual Violence Peak

Who can join

We welcome all Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community-controlled organisations and Peak Bodies delivering FDSV prevention, early intervention or response services and activities.

This includes

- ACCOs* whose primary purpose is FDSV response, prevention or early intervention
- ACCOs* who deliver FDSV services alongside other core function (e.g. health, wellbeing, child and family services, housing, AOD law/justice)

*We define ACCOs as not-for-profit organisations, controlled and operated by Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander people, connected to the communities in which it delivers services and governed by a majority Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander governing body.
